Field Served

DC is the definitive source for the global drilling and completion industry, both land and offshore, and the only viable magazine exclusively covering this space. DC's enhanced editorial employs QR codes to help readers find related multimedia and other resources. The official magazine of the International Association of Drilling Contractors, DC has been published since 1944 and is the longest continuously published magazine focusing on drilling and completion (D&C).

DC's editorial is 100 percent drilling and completion focused - technology, markets, HSEQ, trends, and other critical issues impacting D&C. DC is the only petroleum-industry magazine to cover HSE, training, or competency in every issue. DC is also the only magazine covering completions in every issue. And of course, every issue features drilling technology and technical trends.

Circulation

DC's 31,000 readers are professionals in the oil-and-gas and geothermal drilling and completion industry. It includes senior management at exploration & production and drilling contractor companies. DC offers the largest circulation available among drilling contractors (11,481). Total worldwide circulation for the July/August 2018 edition was 31,034. A 2018 study conducted by Signet Research Inc. concluded that, for each subscriber, a mean of 3.7 people also read DC, for a total of 4.7 people per issue. As a result, DC reaches a total potential reading audience exceeding 145,000.

DC has approximately 15,735 subscribers in the United States, 427 in Canada, 375 in Mexico, 3,148 in Western Europe, 2,892 in East Asia, 2,202 in the Middle East, 1,546 in South America (including the Caribbean), 1,363 in South Asia, 1,018 in Eastern Europe (including Russia), 970 in Equatorial Africa, 703 in North Africa, 392 in Australasia, and 163 in the Caucus region.
